Raider meets his match at hands of three priests

'CHURCH
ON TOP':
Father
Kieran
Magovern

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

THREE priests in their sixties, wearing pyjamas, caught a burglar red-handed and sat on him to prevent him from escaping until police arrived.

Father Jimmy Shiel – who used to play rugby – launched a flying tackle to force the intruder to the floor after he had broken into the presbytery at St Mary's Church in West Street, Dunstable, last Sunday.

The 67-year-old held him in a 'vice-like grip' until Father Kieran Magovern, who is 66 and had undergone a triple heart bypass operation in the past, rushed in to help out his colleague and force his knee down on the burglar's back.

Indian born Father Chacko Panathara, 61, then arrived to help control the burglar before calling the police.

It was a scene that would not have looked out of place in an episode of the classic TV comedy series Father Ted.

Father Magovern, who is the parish priest for the Catholic Church, said: "He entered Jimmy's bedroom and Jimmy woke to see this guy in his room.

"The burglar ran and Jimmy jumped out of bed and ran after him. As he did he hammered on Father Panathara's door. Jimmy played a lot of rugby when he was younger and it was in the corridor that he floored him. It was a rugby tackle and the chap was taken to the floor.

"Jimmy was on top of him and holding him and I got on the floor and had my knee in the chap's back.

"My arrival meant Chacko could go and get a phone and that's what he did.

"He came back with it, handed it to me and I rang 999 and told the police what was happening. The church came out on top."

Police officers arrived and ran upstairs to the corridor to find the three priests in their nightwear holding on to the burglar. They took over and promptly arrested him.

A 28-year-old, from Dunstable, was later charged with burglary and on Monday appeared at Luton Magistrates' Court.

He did not enter a plea but was remanded in custody for a committal hearing to Luton Crown Court next month.

Just hours after the drama, the three parish priests were going about their church duties with early morning mass, baptisms and meetings with parents of children preparing for their first communions.

Central Beds' compromise agreements cost council nearly £250k

ALMOST £250,000 in compromise agreements was paid to departing council staff in just nine months.

Central Bedfordshire Council gave £247,213 to ten outgoing employees since January of this year at an average £24,700 per worker.

Central Beds had refused to give the figures to our sister paper, Bedfordshire on Sunday, claiming it would cost too much to process the information.

But after a week of wrangling with the authority it handed over details, which are almost three times as much as neighbour Bedford Borough Council.

News of the huge pay-outs comes at a time when Central Beds looks to axe 250 jobs and is slashing the wages of 1,500 workers.

The authority's chief executive, Richard Carr, who earns £185,000 a year, has denied that the payments were to silence ex-employees.

He said: "We do not pay staff not to talk about their work once their employment has ended.

"Since January we have reached compromise agreements with ten employees to mutually agree the terms of their departure from the council.

"These agreements are based on statutory entitlements (such as redundancy and notice periods).

"The total cost of the agreements entered into with the staff concerned has been £247,213."

■ Turn to Page 3 for how Mr Carr received more than £10,000 for over-seeing this year's local AV referendum.

EDL leader's public order appeal thrown out

THE leader of the English Defence League has failed in a bid to overturn a conviction for a public order offence before a Luton Town game.

Stephen Lennon, of Luton, was left with a bill for £520 costs after his appeal was dismissed by a High Court Judge at Luton Crown Court on Friday.

The offence of using threatening, abusive or insulting words or behaviour likely to provoke unlawful violence dated back to August 24 last year when there was a confrontation between Newport County and Hatters fans before an evening game in the Blue Square Bet Premier Division.

Prosecutor Daniel Higgins said the supporters from Wales had been drinking heavily and were being shepherd by police at the Bedfordshire Yeoman pub in Dallow Road, Luton.

At around 6pm they made a mass exodus from the pub into St Peter's Road, where about 50 Luton supporters were approaching from the opposite end.

There was a confrontation, with police heavily outnumbered at first, which involved chanting, missiles being thrown, assaults and damage to property.

Mr Higgins said it was the Crown's case that Lennon was at the front of the group, with others looking to him for leadership. It is alleged he was chanting 'E . . . E . . . EDL', the court was told.

But Lennon, 28, told Mr Justice Saunders: "I was not with the group. There was a lot of shouting and screaming and some fighting but it looked more like 'handbags' to me."

"It was all about England and Wales. I may have called them 'sheep s' and things like that but I never mentioned EDL. It is ridiculous to suggest that, it is just not relevant."

He said he was the only one out of more than 100 people there who was arrested, and that was because there was a warrant out for his arrest for assault.

He said he was interviewed about the assault charge which was later dropped and it was only then he was charged with the public order offence.

In dismissing the appeal Mr Justice Saunders said: "It must have been a frightening scene for anyone to observe."

Lennon, who is awaiting sentence for an offence of common assault at a rally in Blackburn, was given a community order by magistrates for the public order offence with 150 hours unpaid work.

That sentence remains and the court was told he has completed 100 hours of the work so far.

His barrister, Scott Ivill, said Lennon's assets were frozen at the moment so he would be unable to pay the costs.

MP gets 'sewage' role on his 30th birthday

EXCLUSIVE

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

LUTON South MP Gavin Shuker had double cause for celebration this week - he turned 30 and was promoted to 'Shadow Minister for Sewage'.

Labour MP Mr Shuker (pictured) was told about his promotion to Shadow Water and Waste Minister on Sunday - the same day as he hit the big 3-0.

It is a step up on his previous position as Shadow Minister for the Natural Environment with Defra (The Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs), which is responsible for Government policy and regulations.

Mr Shuker, who is now the department's number two, said: "It's a small step up to a bigger role, and I feel fortunate that I didn't get shuffled out. I'm still at Defra and have effectively become the Shadow Minister for Sewage. But seriously, I am delighted to be in the role and will continue working hard for the residents of Luton.

"I had my first chance to grill the Government on Thursday in Defra Questions. I asked the Environment Secretary about her plans to create jobs for the economy, but she didn't have any answers."

"It's a community role to create new green jobs in economy. Staying in Defra was a brilliant 30th birthday present for me - finding out on Sunday was great."

"I got a phone call on Friday I was staying Defra, then came the call about the change in role and that it was a step up."

"It was a cause for double celebration as I got the phone call about the promotion on Sunday - which was the day of my 30th birthday."

Mr Shuker became one of the UK's youngest MPs when, at the age of 28, he won the hotly contested Luton South seat vacated by Margaret Moran in last year's General Election.

Search is on for trio

DETECTIVES are looking to trace these three men as part of ongoing operations in serious crimes.

So far, tactics to detect the pictured individuals have been unsuccessful and Bedfordshire Police are hoping members of the public can help track them.

The men are all wanted as part of Operation Staltham which has been in progress since early summer and aims to tackle street gangs, peer groups and serious organised crime in the county.

Within the last year the police's Nexus team have taken a total of 19 guns off the streets of Bedfordshire, with 11 people charged with offences.

Members of the public can help by contacting police directly with any information they may have or by contacting the independent charity Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Council boss paid £10k for poll role

EXCLUSIVE

BY KEELEY KNOWLES
editor@lsmmedia.com

A COUNCIL chief has earned more than £10,000 for running an election despite giving up the same amount.

Luton on Sunday can reveal that Richard Carr (left), the boss of Central Bedfordshire Council, decided not to claim fees for the authority's poll in May.

He could have been entitled to up to £10,594 for being the returning officer in the council's elections.

Instead he was paid a total of £10,075 for his role in the Alternative Vote referendum.

In May our sister paper, Bedfordshire on Sunday, asked Central Beds for the fee Mr Carr would be paid for the local election and was told that it had not yet been calculated.

A spokesman for Central Beds said: "The chief executive made the decision not to claim fees for the Central Beds

Council elections, for which he would have been entitled to claim up to £10,594.

"He was paid £10,075 for his role as returning officer for the AV referendum in May. He was not paid any other fees for the role of returning officer."

■ ONLY six members of council staff did not return to work after the majority accepted changes to their terms and conditions.

We previously reported that employees at Central Beds were sent new contracts to sign which included alterations such as a two per cent cut in pay for those earning more than £21,500.

The deadline for the new contracts was October 1 and this week the authority confirmed that all but six staff returned to work after this date.

Richard Carr, chief executive at the council, said: "We are grateful to all our staff for their ongoing commitment to our customers against the background to these changes and fully respect the decision of those employees who have decided that they no longer want to remain with the council."

Do you recognise these armed robbery suspects?

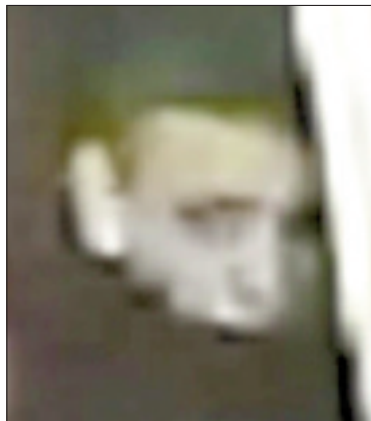

CCTV pictures have been released in a bid to catch armed robbers who attacked staff at an off-licence.

Two masked men forced their way into Maksud Stores in Strathmore Avenue, Luton, threatening one shop assistant with a broken glass bottle and striking the other.

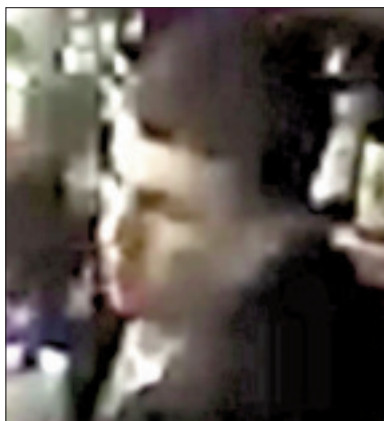

But the store workers – who had become suspicious just before the robbery when a group of about eight white youths gathered outside – bravely fought back, calling the police and trying to prevent the attackers leaving before chasing them off.

Detective Constable Gill Cowley, investigating, is keen to speak to anyone who can help identify the men shown in the pictures or the other six members of the group involved.

Anyone with information about those involved in this crime, which happened on October 3, should call DC Gill Cowley, in confidence on 01582 473153, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Attack victim was in fear for his life

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A YOUNG father said he 'thought he might die' when a gang of eight attacked him and stamped on his head.

The 20-year-old (right) was subjected to the terrible ordeal in the alleyway next to Bar Chameleon in High Street North, Dunstable.

He had been drinking in the pub with friends, but had lost them during the night, and was outside in the smoking area on his own when a man came up to him and asked for his phone.

The attacker then dragged him down the alley where more men appeared and started to beat him up.

The victim, who we have agreed not to name, said: "There was a bit of a scuffle at first where it was just me and him and then his mates jumped in."

"I don't know who they were, I haven't got any grudges with anyone.

"They were stamping on my head. The rest of them started to stop when I think they saw the blood, but the main guy just kept going."

"I thought I might die. They were telling him to calm down and he did stop eventually."

He got away after the main attacker threatened him saying he had ten seconds to escape or he would be killed.

He added: "I didn't think it was too bad at first. I thought I would go to bed but they convinced me to go to hospital and when I got there I realised how bad it was."

"My jaw was broken and pushed to the right side. It was all lopsided."

"I wasn't covered in blood or anything, I just had to keep spitting it out of my mouth."

"As soon as I got to hospital they put me on morphine and took me to surgery."

His broken jaw needed two metal plates and four screws to keep it in place.

Three men have been arrested in connection with the attack, which happened on September 11, but no one has been charged.

Anyone who may have witnessed the incident or has further information should contact DC Durrant on 01582 473325 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Deer leaps from bridge and lands on M1 car

A DEER jumped off a bridge and landed on the windscreen of a car travelling at 50mph on the M1.

The wild animal crashed into the driver's side of a Luton man's Volkswagen Passat southbound on the motorway between Junctions 12 and 13.

It is believed the deer was spooked by a car on the Eversholt bridge, near Woburn, causing it to hurdle a 5ft wall and fall down onto the highway on Tuesday afternoon.

Fortunately, the man was not seriously injured and no other cars were involved in the accident.

Traffic was held up briefly, before the damaged car was moved into the roadworks area.

The man, in his 30s, was taken to Luton & Dunstable Hospital for treatment for minor head injuries. The deer did not survive the fall.

Link Road may lead to fewer speeding tickets

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

NEARLY 5,000 speeding tickets have been handed out on just three roads in the past three years.

The worst street in Bedfordshire for drivers breaking the speed limit each year since 2008 was Luton Road, Dunstable, in 2010/11 when 2,071 were caught travelling faster than the 30mph limit. The year before, Dunstable Road, Luton, caught 1,718 offenders, while in 2008/09 the camera in Chalkhill on the A5 flashed 1,791 people.

The position of fixed speed cameras is determined by councils, but the issuing of tickets is controlled by the police.

MP for South West Bedfordshire Andrew Selous thinks the problem could be alleviated by the proposed A5-M1 Link Road, which aims to reduce traffic in the centre of Dunstable.

He said: "The Link Road would clearly take people from those roads and the roads will therefore be much less congested and people will feel less need to speed to get to their destination as perhaps they feel they do at the moment when they are stuck in traffic – not that that is an excuse. The A5-M1 link will help a great deal to reduce traffic and congestion."

A police spokesman said: "Fixed cameras will only be installed at locations where there is a history of collisions, where highway safety experts consider that the presence of a fixed safety camera will be the most effective way to prevent similar collisions occurring in the future."

"Local residents in urban and rural areas when asked what their priorities are, they nearly always cite speeding in their top three."

"The purpose of cameras is to deter speeding to make the roads safer, not to generate income from speeding fines."

The figures were published following a Freedom of Information Act request.

Limit-breaking dangerous driver awaits sentencing

A DRIVER reached speeds of up to 70mph in a 30mph zone in a bid to evade the police chasing him.

Lloyd O'Halloran, 26, was finally caught after he was pursued for five minutes along Stopsley Way, Hitchin Road and Ashcroft Road, Luton.

In footage shown at Luton

Magistrates' Court on Wednesday, O'Halloran was seen to drive in a Black Vauxhall Vectra VRM at more than double the speed limit at around 3.30am on Saturday, September 3.

At one point he went round a roundabout the wrong way in the car, which had false number plates. O'Halloran, of Arrow Close, Luton, pleaded guilty to driving dangerously, using a vehicle without insurance, fraudulently use of a registration mark and driving otherwise than in accordance with a licence.

He will be sentenced next month.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Positive signs for new Media City

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE opening of a Media City has moved a step closer after the first signs declaring its existence went up this week.

Express Newspapers, which owns the Daily Express and Sunday Express, has converted the disused DHL building in Kimpton Road, Luton, into a brand new printing facility, bringing with it 140 jobs.

The group – owned by media mogul Richard Desmond – is currently based at London's Docklands, and subsidiary West Ferry Printers' planning application, which was given the thumbs-up in January, had said the plant would 'promote regeneration in the area'.

Last week, it was revealed that 900 potential Express Newspapers jobs are being prevented from being created in the town by the Highways Agency, which has instructed Luton Borough Council not to give the go-ahead for progress with any projects before improvements are made to Junction 10a of the M1 on account of traffic congestion.

Organisations are letting down child sex abuse victims

VICTIMS of child sexual exploitation are being failed, according to a new university study.

Disturbing findings were uncovered by a two year report written by the University of Bedfordshire, which said the 'prosecution of abusers is rare' and, where criminal proceedings take place, 'young people's experience of court can be intolerable'.

The research, funded by Comic Relief, was published on Friday and carried out by Sue Jago and Professor Jenny Pearce from the International Centre for the Study of Sexually Exploited and Trafficked Young People, based at the university's Luton campus.

Professor Pearce and Sue Jago said: "This is a unique and important piece of work which shows child sexual exploitation is child abuse and many Local Safeguarding Children Boards are failing its victims.

"Our research shows there are pockets of good practice but this is not being shared across the country."

Professor Pearce and Sue Jago have, with Professor John Pitts, now been commissioned by the Office of the Children's Commissioner to help with the national inquiry into Child Sexual Exploitation in Gangs and Groups.

Superb history lesson

SIR - I read with interest the story about Luton Town Hall in last week's Luton on Sunday.

It is fascinating to know how times have changed although, I suppose, we should count ourselves lucky that nothing as extreme has happened in the town since then.

I had never seen a picture of what it was like before, and always assumed it had been like that since day one, so being able to compare the two buildings was brilliant.

The Town Hall is quite often ignored in day-to-day life as you walk through the town centre, but it is nice to know that Luton does have an interesting history.

I hope that when the renovation of the area just outside the building is complete, it will make the council's offices stand out even more – it is the only grand building in the town centre.

Writing's on the wall

SIR - The refusal of Slovakia's MPs to sanction more money to bail out Greece is the right thing for both Greece and the whole of Europe.

The Eurozone cannot and will not work however, irrespective of how many bail-outs are sanctioned.

The concept that so many diverse countries economies can be compressed into a single currency without centralised economic and political policies is just utterly naive and unstable Britain should not bail out Greece.

It will only be a matter of time for other countries like Spain and Italy to be lining up for a rescue plan due to their own financial mismanagement.

The way forward for Europe and Greece is for Greece to return to its own currency and management of its economy.

Holding together the Eurozone will fail – it will fall apart just like the Berlin Wall and Eastern Bloc.

Thankfully the UK never joined otherwise we would be dragged down further by it.

Neglect needs ending

SIR - There is never a mention about quality of care for people suffering for decades with ME (Myalgic Encephalomyelitis) in their own homes.

Yet they are victims of the same types of neglect reported – after unannounced inspections of NHS hospitals – by the Care Quality Commission on Thursday, including basic nutrition, personal needs and, overwhelmingly, social isolation, often failing to meet legal standards, never mind any consideration of decency.

This is because no-one from the Commission, nor anyone else, including doctors, family, neighbours – not a soul in many cases – ever visits them, or even phones and also because many people with ME don't have a carer anyway – no one – not even a single struggling member of the family, or child who ought to be at school and they certainly couldn't afford to pay for one, even if they could find a trustworthy one.

It may be that some readers were genuinely not aware of this shameful

MP calls for boundary change opposition

SIR - I have had the huge privilege of serving Dunstable and Kensworth in Parliament for more than ten years now and have shared the joys and frustrations of their residents over this time.

Many of your Dunstable and Kensworth readers do not appear to realise that the Boundary Commission for England has proposed to put Dunstable in a new Luton North and Dunstable constituency and Kensworth in a new Hemel Hempstead constituency.

I am strongly opposed to these proposals and want to keep Dunstable and Kensworth in the South West Bedfordshire constituency.

Every Dunstable and Kensworth resident I have spoken to feels the same way. People can let the Boundary Commission know their views by email to: eastern@bcommengland.x.gsi.gov.uk or by post to 35 Great Smith Street, London SW1P 3BQ. The consultation closes on Monday, December 5.

I will be going to the public hearings in Luton Town Hall on November 7-8 to oppose this proposal and I hope others will join me.

The Commission advises registering by October 24 to speak and this can be done by calling them on 020 7276 1102 or going on to their website at: www.consultation.boundarycommissionforengland.independent.gov.uk

I would particularly like to hear from local community and business groups, local schools and colleges who are concerned by the proposed changes which will put Dunstable, Houghton Regis and Leighton Buzzard in different constituencies.

Please let me have these by email to:

state of affairs, which may leave them unwashed and not properly fed for months as a time, because ME sufferers are unable to call out for help for themselves.

But now that this organisation has done so, on their behalf, there is no excuse for it to continue, is there?

Sadly, I think it will, even if anyone is ever prosecuted for not caring. It would be far better if individuals cared, without having to be told that it was the least they ought to do.

Thinking about horses

SIR - The recent publicity about the marvellous play War Horse reminds us about all the ways in which animals have suffered – and continue to suffer – in human wars and conflicts.

Animals have been used as messengers, for detection, scouting and rescue, as beasts of burden and on the frontline.

Meanwhile, in UK laboratories, thousands of animals suffer and die every year in invasive warfare experiments. It is time to stop exploiting animals in these ways.

You can show your concern for this animal suffering by joining the tens of thousands of people who wear Animal Aid's purple poppy.

To buy your poppy, or for more information about all Animal Aid's campaigns against animal cruelty, call 01732 364546 or visit www.animalaidshop.org.uk

Charity runners sought

SIR - Have any of your readers been lucky enough to secure a place in the 2012 London Marathon through the public ballot?

We at World Cancer Research Fund (WCRF) are writing to appeal to those who have secured their own place in the London Marathon to consider fundraising for us.

It's really easy to join Team WCRF and in return we offer full support with training and nutritional advice, an essential runners kit containing your unique WCRF running vest, a fundraising pack and your own personalised online sponsorship page.

WCRF also offers a pasta party the day before the race and a post-race reception with a free massage and shower to soothe away any aches and pains.

Scientists estimate that about a third of the most common cancers could be prevented by following a healthy diet, being physically active and maintaining a healthy weight.

So not only will taking part in the London Marathon help you get into the kind of habits that can reduce your own cancer risk but the money raised will help us continue to fund our research and education programmes on cancer prevention.

If you are interested in running for us, visit www.wcrf-uk.org/fundraising, email events@wcrf.org or call 0207 343 4200.

It's time to end slavery

SIR - More than two centuries ago, the British public stood together to help end the Transatlantic Slave Trade.

Despite this historic victory, slavery persisted and continues to ravage the lives of an estimated 12.3 million people across the world, including here in Britain.

Tuesday is Anti-Slavery Day, and its purpose is to raise awareness of the thousands of people forced to work without pay by criminal gangs and unscrupulous bosses across the UK.

This includes people in forced labour in factories, restaurants and on building sites as well as domestic workers trapped in private homes, women trafficked into prostitution and children forced to beg, steal or work against their will as 'gardeners' in cannabis farms.

Anti-Slavery International, the world's oldest human rights organisation, hopes this day will act as a catalyst to galvanise the public to once again take a stand against slavery and to help us finally stamp out this horrendous crime.

To find out how we can all defeat this problem once and for all or to make a donation to help Anti-Slavery International with its work please visit www.anti-slavery.org

These are hard times

SIR - The fact that, according to the Office for National Statistics, public spending is at a ten-year low, comes as no shock.

Families in Britain are faced with falling salaries – and in many cases redundancy – rising inflation and the soaring price of food and fuel.

Tightening purse strings is an inevitable side-effect of current dire circumstances. And it isn't just 'vulnerable' or 'low income' households who are struggling.

Those who never, ever expected to face financial difficulty are now finding that the money they had put aside is being relentlessly eroded.

Aside from general pressures, research that we published at the height of the recession showed that 53 per cent of people in the UK had already experienced a fundamental change to their working conditions including a decrease in working hours, change in salary or job loss.

Yet, the level of unclaimed benefits currently stands at £19.18 billion, suggesting that awareness of the money available to people who are unexpectedly struggling is low.

At this time of major financial pressures, household scrimping, and sweeping changes to the benefits system, it is more important than ever that people regularly check their eligibility for additional support.

Meanwhile, a lack of affordable housing in rural areas, as raised by this week's shocking report from Shelter, is sadly just one of the many serious and difficult issues faced by those living in Britain's countryside.

Around 3.5 million countryside dwellers are surviving on low incomes, and one in six people in rural areas are living in what the Government defines as poverty.

A lack of employment, and rising fuel prices also impact on those in rural areas more heavily than their urban counterparts, having far less access to public transport.

In the current economic climate, people living in the countryside are being squeezed to breaking point by financial pressures, while also earning on average 20 per cent less than the national average.

We urge the Government not to lose sight of the needs of those living in rural areas and, particularly with the escalating fuel and food bills adding further to an increasingly hefty cost of living, we encourage anyone battling with financial need to use our free Turn2us service at www.turn2us.org.uk

Using this service, they can check what support is available to them through welfare benefits and charitable grants.

Fundraising baking plan

SIR - It's National Baking Week, the nation's chance to get together and share our passion for baking.

Baking is a great way to indulge yourself, friends and family, but thanks to The National Autistic Society's FestiTea campaign, baking can also be a way to rally together in your local community and make a difference for people affected by autism.

So to mark Baking Week, we are asking people to get inspired and start planning their very own FestiTea cake and tea party in aid of autism for this upcoming festive period. Christmas can be a very busy and stressful time for all of us, but it's especially difficult for the half a million people affected by autism, who can often become confused and frightened by sudden changes of routine, unusual foods and new social activities.

FestiTea Parties are a wonderful way to help by raising money for an excellent cause and at the same time having a great time with friends and family.

With two months to go and Christmas approaching fast, now is the perfect time to get inspired – why not use baking week to practice making some of your party treats?

You can visit www.festivitea.org.uk to register for a fundraising pack and find some fantastic recipes to help you get started.

A successful FestiTea Party requires just a few simple ingredients – friends, family, colleagues or neighbours, and plenty of helpings of tea and cake.

You will have a great time, while raising vital funds for people affected by autism.

Elderly man in boiling water ordeal 'was lucky to survive'

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsmmedia.com

A MAN in his sixties was attacked with boiling water, caustic soda, an iron and a broom handle, a court has heard.

Timothy Sheridan's ordeal at a friend's flat in Crawley Green Road, Luton, went on through the night and into the next morning.

Mr Sheridan told the police he was 'lucky to survive'. Luton Crown Court heard on Thursday. He was left with chemical and flame burns, a broken finger and wounds that needed stitches.

Prosecutor Claudette Elliott said the attack happened at Jenny Collins' flat during the night of October 7, 2010 and into the next morning.

She said: "This was a very serious assault on a man in his sixties at his friend's flat. The injured person Timothy Sheridan was assaulted over a prolonged period of time while he was visiting Jenny Collins' flat."

Ms Elliott said the three attackers were Jackie Kerr, Jenny Collins and Barry Medlock. The jury was told Kerr and Collins had pleaded guilty to causing grievous bodily harm with intent.

Mr Medlock, 64, a neighbour of Collins in Crawley Green Road, pleads not guilty to the same charge.

Mr Sheridan was to tell the police that the main attacker was Jackie Kerr, but all three took part.

Ms Elliott added: "The weapons used included an iron and a kettle with boiling water.

"He was hit and sprayed over his body and caustic soda was used.

"Barry Medlock played a part. He used a pole to hit him and got the kettle with the boiling water that Jackie Kerr poured over him."

The jury was told that when Medlock was arrested he said he did not take part in the assault.

He said he had gone back to his flat two doors away and did not return until the next morning.

Ms Elliott added: "He said he heard shouting and went to investigate.

"He said he tried to help by intervening between Kerr and Mr Sheridan, and did not play a part in the attack."

The case continues.

Houseowner guilty of a £12k benefit fraud

A BENEFITS fraudster who stole £12,000 from taxpayers has been given a suspended prison sentence.

Nasreen Zulfarqar deliberately lied on her application forms in telling Luton Borough Council she was privately renting the house in Saxon Road, in which she was living – whereas actually she was the landlord.

She was rumoured after an investigation by the council's audit team, and at Luton Magistrates' Court admitted three counts of benefit fraud.

By giving the council false and misleading information she fraudulently obtained benefits totalling £12,000.

Zulfarqar, of Culverhouse Road, Luton, is now repaying these funds to the council.

The magistrates sentenced Zulfarqar to 16 weeks imprisonment, suspended for 12 months and required her to undertake 200 hours unpaid work in the community. She was further ordered to pay £220 towards the council's prosecution costs.

If you think someone you know is claiming benefits illegally, call the fraud hotline in complete confidence on 0500 500 777 or email fraud@luton.gov.uk

AFTER you. No, after you. I insist. It comes as no surprise to discover we British are the politest nation on earth.

Mind you, these surveys need to be taken with a pinch of salt, as one two years ago said we were becoming the rudest. Without wishing to offend, I think that one was talking rubbish.

Everywhere I go, I see only courtesy and politeness. People let cars into the flow of traffic, queue good humouredly and wait patiently to be served.

Well, perhaps not all the time. I never used to let Chelsea tractors and other posh cars out at junctions. I own a slightly posh car myself these days, though, so I have had to change that little idiosyncrasy or I wouldn't let myself out.

The present Mrs Lowe hates queuing, particularly at supermarkets. Whenever we get to the checkout she suddenly remembers something else we need and wanders off to leave me to empty the basket. I am not trusted to fill the bags at the other end, though, so she miraculously re-appears when it is our turn.

My former boss, Frank Branson, said there was nothing in the world worth seeing that would involve queuing for more than half an hour. Me, I love queuing, as a demonstration of my patience and tolerance, although there are some in the world who do not consider tolerance to be a virtue. And the children are always polite and well-behaved in restaurants.

I just wish I could say the same for some of my friends, although most have grown out of the habit of doing runners at the Chinese.

It never ceases to amaze me, when abroad, how everyone thinks barging to the front is the acceptable way to behave.

Perhaps the EU should consider a Convention of European Manners. It will keep them busy for a couple of decades, by which time the fiscal crisis will have died down.

Another example of British politeness was witnessed the other Saturday, at the Leicester-Derby football match. We politely waved cheerio

The survey says . . . we have the best manners to the Derby fans, who decided to leave early, and wished them a safe journey home.

Footballers themselves can be a bit rude but I am sure it is only youthful exuberance.

Instead of bad language, it would make sense for footballers to be made to learn another foreign language. If for no other reason it would be useful to be able to swear in French, Italian and Spanish, so they could converse more easily with their team-mates. Of course good manners and politeness start at school and we were taught only to swear in Latin. My old headmaster even used to say sorry before caning me, which certainly eased the pain.

When he said it would hurt him more than me, that was stretching manners a bit far. So, while we are a poor second in most industry, manufacturing and sporting endeavours, we take our defeats with grace and good humour.

ONE example of poor manners and behaviour is spitting in public, which seems to be on the increase. It is difficult to walk down the street, without witnessing the disgusting habit.

If people have to spit they should do it in their tissues or hankies. Walking down some streets is positively dangerous as it is like Bambi on ice.

One council in London is about to make it illegal and our councils should follow suit.

It always was the case and I am not sure why it was legalised. Particularly as these days we cannot throw litter on the ground and can even get fined for throwing an apple core out of a car window but we are permitted to throw our spit wherever and however we please.

It is time to stop it, so let's see a local by-law proclaiming exactly that.

Terrified teen tied up in raid on her home

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A TEENAGE girl was tied to a radiator when knife-wielding masked men raided her home before stealing cash and gold jewellery.

The four men forced their way into the 17-year-old's house, in Moreton Road North, Luton, in the middle of the day on Tuesday, bound her and searched the property.

Eventually she managed to free herself and ran from the house before raising the alarm.

The two white men, one black man and a man with an Asian appearance, all believed to be in their late teens with their faces covered, left the scene on foot towards the footbridge on Vauxhall Way.

Detective Constable Barry Townson, investigating, said: "This was an extremely frightening experience for the young victim who believed the men were armed with knives and a taser. As the victim ran from the property she remembers seeing a man walking his dog who may be a vital witness.

"I would appeal to this man or anyone else who may have seen anything suspicious in the area to come forward and speak with the police."

If you have information relating to incident you can contact DC Townson, in confidence, on 01582 473369, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Roads to close for lights work to take place

MAIN roads will be closed this week to enable traffic lights to be improved.

Overnight road closures will take place between Wednesday and Friday as part of work to upgrade signals at the junction of Dunstable Road and Lewsey Road, Luton.

To allow for carriageway resurfacing, the following closures will take effect between 10pm and 5am:

■ Overnight on Wednesday, the Dunstable-bound carriageway of Dunstable Road will be closed between just after the roundabout at M1 Junction 11 and Lewsey Road. Diversions are via Chaul End Lane, Hatters Way and Skimpot Road.

■ Overnight on Thursday and Friday, the Luton-bound carriageway of Dunstable Road will be closed between just after 'Halfway House' roundabout (at the junction with Poynters Road and Skimpot Road), and Lewsey Road. Diversions are via Skimpot Road, Hatters Way and Chaul End Lane.

■ Overnight on Thursday and Friday, Lewsey Road will be closed at its junction with Dunstable Road. Diversions are via Leagrave High Street and Poynters Road.

All access to Luton & Dunstable Hospital will remain.

Clr Dave Taylor said: "The works have been scheduled to minimise disruption for road users. We apologise for any inconvenience that is caused."

£15k fine for company's lettings rule breach

A COMPANY was fined £15,000 for letting out buildings without planning permission.

Luton Borough Council prosecuted Bis-Mil-Lah Enterprises Limited for failing to comply with a Planning Enforcement Notice regarding two outbuildings in Brook Street, Luton.

The notice required the use of two detached buildings as self-contained dwellings to stop because they were being let for accommodation without planning permission.

On October 7 Luton Magistrates' Court upheld the notice even though Bis-Mil-Lah Enterprises, formerly of Bury Park Road and now operating as Bis-Mil-Lah Solutions Limited in Victoria Street, had appealed against it.

In the meantime, Bis-mil-lah Enterprises had continued to let the outbuildings as accommodation.

A council spokeswoman said:

"The council will not tolerate landlords breaking the law.

"If we find other landlords letting premises for accommodation which are unsuitable, we will not hesitate to take enforcement action."

As well as its fine, Bis-Mil-Lah was ordered to pay a £10,000 contribution towards the council's costs, bearing in mind the benefit the company had derived from the unlawful letting.

Plans in pipeline to merge schools

BY LUI STRACCIA

luistraccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SPECIAL school could be closed and merged with another which will be expanded.

Views are being sought on plans to shut down Hillcrest School in Parkside Drive, Houghton Regis, and combine it with the 'outstanding' Ofsted-rated Glenwood School in Beech Road, Dunstable.

Central Bedfordshire Council is seeking feedback on alternative arrangements for delivering special schooling as part of a consultation that started this week.

The proposal involves creating an area special school to 'secure good quality special educational provision for current and future families'.

The merger would be achieved by expanding Glenwood and closing Hillcrest to form one school across the existing two sites under a new name.

By sharing facilities and bringing together staff expertise, the area special school would cater for a wider range of needs as well as offering families improved provision closer to home.

It is hoped the merged school would offer greater potential to hold on to and develop quality teaching and also supply support for children with special educational needs in mainstream schools.

The plan is an amendment to a council decision in the summer to merge the two schools, along with Weatherfield School, following both informal and informal consultation.

However, following a subsequent decision by the Secretary of State to grant academy status for Weatherfield, the council has revoked the statutory notices for merging the three schools and is starting a new consultation process to agree future arrangements.

Feedback from the previous consultation, including that of the schools themselves, supported the merger of Glenwood and Hillcrest if the larger merger with Weatherfield was not possible.

Cllr Mark Versallion said: "Above all our aim is to meet the needs of children and young people, particularly those with complex needs. The outcomes for these children are always likely to be better if they can go to school close to home and their families can remain involved.

"Having successfully established the Ivel Valley Area Special School in east Central Bedfordshire we are keen to safeguard and strengthen special educational provision in the south of our area.

"I very much hope that everyone with an interest in the future of our special schools – parents, staff and other professionals and the local community – will take this opportunity to feed back their views."

Those wanting to find out more about the proposals can do so at public meetings on November 1 at 2pm at Hillcrest School and on November 2 at 7pm at Glenwood School.

People can find out more and take part in the consultation, which runs until November 18, through the council's website at www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/surveys/SpecialSchools/south.htm

Wi-fi piggybackers take a bit of a risk

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

MORE than half of local businesses have admitted using someone else's wireless internet network without their permission.

A survey showed that 56 per cent of firms in Luton engage in 'piggybacking', an illegal practice in which wi-fi users obtain free web access via a network owned by another person or company without permission.

And more than a third of respondents (35 per cent) to a survey believe there's nothing wrong with it – despite the fact that dishonestly using an electronics communications service with the intent to avoid paying is an offence under the Communications Act 2003.

Wi-fi 'piggybacking' has been around since the dawn of wireless computing as many people do not secure their networks with a password.

Ajay Kara, director of The PC Support Group Luton, which carried out the survey, said: "The perception is that borrowing a bit of bandwidth is cheeky but not really criminal behaviour."

"There's also a view that if someone does not take the trouble to password-protect their wireless network they have to accept the consequences."

"Unfortunately, human nature being what it is, if you don't make your system secure, you are at the very least likely to end up paying for someone else to have the privilege of accessing the web. It will also slow your use of the internet."

"You are also leaving yourself open to risk."

"In most cases bandwidth theft is simply about people wanting to avoid paying for services. But occasionally, piggybacking is used as a means of hiding illegal downloading activity or engaging in identity theft."

"Many business users don't think twice about logging on to free wi-fi in cafés or using their hotel's wireless network when travelling, but the truth is, although convenient, open wireless networks also carry some risk."

"More people are working remotely and using wireless technology than ever before. The education of risk tends to lack behind the technology."

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said: "We would always recommend that people using wi-fi implement and use the firewalls available to protect their connections and also follow any supplier guidance available to protect their passwords."

Group congratulate themselves over high-five record

AN unofficial new world record of 'high fives' was set this week.

Mental health charity Make A Difference (MAD) enlisted the help of more than 2,100 people at ten locations, including St

George's Square, Luton, for the attempt. The group held the bid for the most people to high-five simultaneously on Monday – World Mental Health Day – and comfortably beat the existing record of 1,790.

But before the attempt is recognised as being official, the organisers have to complete a series of witness statements which will be scrutinised by Guinness World Records.

New device means just a fingertip away

I'M OUT on patrol with PC Carl Klein of Bedfordshire Police who has been part of the force's traffic cops for the last eight years.

He tells me about the police's new tool that checks the fingerprints of potential offenders using the help of Mobile ID.

The device - which is basically a Blackberry mobile with a scanner attached - is used to identify anyone suspected of committing or about to commit a crime and even in the identification of dead people.

As we make our way through the evening rush-hour traffic our talk is interrupted as we see a man make a move beyond a 'no right turn' sign... so I soon get to see the device in action.

"It's at this time you see a lot of people breaking traffic laws, either making cuts through roads they shouldn't or sitting in traffic playing on their phones," he tells me.

PC Klein pulls the man over and the worker holds his hands up as the officer invites him for a talk in the back of the car.

"I know I shouldn't but I've seen others do it," he tells the constable. He's spoken to and when asked if he'd been drinking he's told to supply a sample. The plumber gets tested and is found with 34mg of alcohol in 100 millilitres of breath - 1mg under the legal limit.

Out comes the Mobile ID. After scanning the fingerprints of a person the tool logs into the national fingerprint database, IDENT1, to look for a match.

In it are more than eight million people's information of those who have been convicted or have been involved in police investigations.

A scan comes up showing there's no data for this man, his information is deleted and after a ticking off that he was 'a sniff of alcohol away from losing his licence' the relieved motorist is sent on his way.

"The thing I want to get across to the public is that if your details aren't already on the database then the "Officers will only use this if they suspect someone of committing or about to commit a crime.

"But what this allows is that we don't have to waste time and resources taking people back to the station for checks when we can run it all at the scene."

Earlier this year officers flagged up a vehicle using their Automatic Number Plate Recognition (ANPR).

The car – which had four people in it – was thought to have been used in a sexual offence. After stopping the vehicle and checking the occupants with Mobile ID they found two had given false details. Both were arrested, one was wanted for two thefts and a GBH and the other was in breach of bail.

I asked the traffic cop how people feel when he asks for their fingerprints?

He said: "The majority of members of the public are quite happy to have their prints scanned and checked because they have nothing to hide.

"What this does is stop people giving us false information about who they are.

"In the past we've gone into court and the person in the dock is not the person who we have pulled over because someone has given another driver's name. As of this year we also have the power to take people's photographs if they cannot provide a driving licence.

"It saves on wasting public money by putting people through the courts and it proves they were the driver we pulled over – that's another advantage to this bit of kit."

This week the police admitted that the global breakdown of the BlackBerry's network had affected the use of Mobile ID but systems were back up and running on Thursday.

Rents rise puts Luton in a hotspot position

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

AVERAGE rents are at their highest level all year at nearly £800 a month, according to latest figures from a lettings agent.

Luton is proving to be a major rental hotspot in the region, with ever-increasing numbers of commuters prepared to travel up the M1 from towns such as Hemel Hempstead and Watford to save hundreds of pounds on their rent.

Figures from haart's Lettings Price Index show that average rents in the town last month rose 15 per cent on the previous month to £787 as demand continues to outstrip supply. Since the start of the year, rents have been rising at the rate of almost £2.50 a week.

The popularity of the University of Bedfordshire, which was over-subscribed for a second year running, has also contributed to average rents.

Matthew Lindsay, Lettings

Manager for haart, said: "Luton is proving particularly popular at the moment, be it with commuters looking to escape the high prices in areas like Watford, or students moving to the town from other parts of the UK."

"This is having a definite effect on average rents and is likely to continue to do so at least over the short to medium term."

The haart of Luton lettings branch, based in Wellington Street, is currently letting properties at the rate of two a day.

A decade in the making but school's new suite finally opens its doors

A SCHOOL'S special needs suite has finally been completed - ten years after the idea to build it was born.

Staff and pupils at Parkfields Middle School, in Park Road, Toddington, celebrated as they launched their new £400,000 Food Technology Room and Special Needs Suite.

Steven Bird, who project managed the operation, cut the ribbon (pictured above) to officially launch the new building, which will house theory and practical rooms for food and materials classes so pupils can learn and develop all their culinary skills.

The project was first planned solely as a new Food Block to enable the school from September 2011 to meet the previous Government's requirement that all pupils nationally be taught cooking and nutritional skills, and so acquire 'life skills'.

A Government grant of £300,000 was made to Central Bedfordshire Council to build the modern accommodation which the school lacked to timetable classes in a 'suitably equipped and stimulating environment'.

The new building consists of an entrance lobby with storage, a plant room and toilet facilities for the less able. The lobby leads to an open area for practical classes with an adjoining room for theory lessons.

The build also incorporates a room specifically for special needs administration - a department that previously had no dedicated area.

Man gets fine after he was found with drug

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A DRUG user was spared a community order after he admitted he had trouble keeping off illegal substances.

Jamie Furmston, 24, was pulled over by police in High Street South, Dunstable, in July and found to have 0.697g of cocaine hidden in his boxers.

Furmston, of Astra Way, Luton, admitted that the class A drug was for personal use but would not tell police where he got it from. On Wednesday he pleaded guilty to its possession at Luton Magistrates' Court.

It was heard that Furmston, who was representing himself, had been put on a 12 month community order in 2009 for possession of cannabis and cocaine.

Furmston said: "There is not really much I can say to defend myself. What can I say? I committed the crime.

"The community order wasn't a waste of time, it made me think about things.

"I have problems sometimes staying away from some drugs."

He was ordered to pay an £85 fine, £85 costs and £15 victim surcharge.

The destruction of the drugs was also ordered.

Group will look at iPad to help with learning difficulties

THE use of iPad tablets to help children with learning difficulties will be the main topic of discussion at an autism or Aspergers Syndrome support group meeting.

Families in Luton Autism Group (FLAG) will get together at Limbury Fields Community and Children's Centre, in Icknield Way, Luton, from 10am-11:30am tomorrow.

The group get together regularly to share their experiences while finding out about things which can help their children.

Josie Kingston, of Richmond Hill Special School, and Paul Hutton, of the e-Learning Centre, will be taking parents through some of the innovative ways to use iPad tablets, and there will be an opportunity to see first hand some of the applications which can be of benefit.

Clir Tahir Khan said: "I'd urge anyone who has a child with autism or Aspergers Syndrome to pay a visit to the FLAG event. They provide a great opportunity for parents to come together, share their experiences and knowledge, and ask any questions they may have."

To find out more information, call the council's Autism Spectrum Team on 01582 548151.

Ever wondered how those famous faces stay looking so young? Crystal Clear Microdermabrasion literally takes years off you by gently exfoliating the outer layers of skin. Crystal Clear Microdermabrasion (MDA) treats a vast array of skin concerns, on both the face and body, using a safe and controlled method of skin resurfacing. The treatment provides immediate visible results for ageing skin, lines & wrinkles, open pores, blackheads, pigmentation, blemish scars, acne scars, stretch marks and much more. You'll see the difference even after just one treatment, however for more problematic skin concerns a course may be recommended (10 MDA treatments are £400 special offer in October only £299). What's more, the gentle vacuum action gives the facial muscles a mini 'work out' each time, providing an immediate lifting effect and ongoing improvement in tone. Crystal Clear Microdermabrasion is the skin care secret of the stars.

Nominate the Best Luton has to offer

LUTON'S Best Awards aim to recognise those who make a valuable contribution to our town in all kinds of ways.

Many give up their time to help others enjoy sports and the arts or help to protect our environment.

Others think of new and exciting ways that they can make a contribution to the community.

We know they are out there so tell us who they are.

Environmental Achievement Award – sponsored by Vauxhall – is an award for individuals or groups of all ages that have demonstrated a commitment to enhancing and protecting our environment.

The 2010 winner was Paul Rodell, an excellent figurehead who supports public events including the celebration of the award of Green Flag status for five of Luton's parks.

Luton's Best is looking for any individual or organisation that has developed a product or service that has made a positive contribution to the town as Innovator/Innovation of the Year – sponsored by Selex Galileo.

Last year winners 2K Manufacturing had developed a new groundbreaking technology (Powder Impression Moulding) that allows them to take co-mingled polymer waste and re-manufacture it into high-performance, environmentally sustainable products.

Leisure and Culture – sponsored by Luton Hoo Hotel – is looking to recognise an individual or organisation excelling or inspiring either as a professional or amateur in the areas of sport, arts, leisure, culture and heritage in Luton.

High Town Art for All, an exciting project bringing art to the community by working in previously disused properties, took this award in 2010.

Luton's Best 2011 is also delighted to welcome a new sponsor - Signature Flight Support Corporation, the world's largest fixed-base operation and distribution network for business aviation services.

Signature operates at more than 100 locations in the United States, Europe, South America, Africa and Asia.

All nominees are entered into a draw to win two tickets to the prestigious awards event at Luton Hoo on December 8.

Nominations for all 16 categories are open until November 7.

For full details of the awards, the criteria and how to enter, visit www.luton.gov.uk/lutonsbestawards or contact Sinead McNamara on 01582 546265 or email sinead.mcnamara@luton.gov.uk

The houses are all traditional two-storey properties, with lounge diners, integrated kitchens, flooring throughout, and will be ready to move into this winter.

Already three houses have been sold off-plan, and interest is sure to heighten now that you can physically touch and feel the inside of one of them.

The show home will be open Saturday though to Wednesday each week from 10am till 5pm, and there are a range of financial incentives to help first-time buyers get on the property ladder, structured through the selling agent Connells, so please don't hesitate to call 0845 437 9702 or Connells Luton on 01582 450999 for more details.

TINKLING
THE IVORIES:
Sam
Haywood

Piano man Sam will honour two musical greats

MUSIC

SAM HAYWOOD

Luton Library Theatre
October 24, 7.45pm

PIANIST Sam Haywood returns to the Music on Mondays stage at Luton Library Theatre to mark the genius of Schubert and the anniversary of the birth of another genius, Franz Liszt, whose bicentenary falls on Saturday.

Schubert died so young, at the age of 31, that his talent was largely unrecognised in his lifetime, but his musical successors recognised both his compositional genius and his essential contribution to the development of music.

Sam's programme reflects both these aspects, as well as highlighting the dazzling pianism of Liszt, whose admiration for Schubert's melodic and harmonic mastery is evident.

The programme starts with four pure Schubert impromptus, and progresses to Schubert songs (including the Erl Konig) expanded and imagined by Liszt, and then the Romantic piano sonata of the Liszt B minor.

Sam has studied with the best, such as Artur Schnabel, and played with Joshua Bell and Steven Isserlis and his recordings have won awards (CD of the week on Radio 3).

Full details of the season are on Facebook (Music on Mondays) and on the website, www.lutonmusic.org.uk, which includes offers for ticket price reductions.

Tickets are also available from the Luton Library Theatre box office (01582 547474) or on the door.

Edinburgh festival favourite Hegley is heading to town for a tuneful rematch

WHAT'S ON

UTTER! LUTON

The Hat Factory, Luton
Wednesday, 7.30pm

LAST year at the Edinburgh festival, 'Utter!' Spoken word played host to a star-studded line-up of performers from the Luton area including John Hegley, Clod magazine and Simon Munnelly.

Now it's time for the return match as 'Utter!' comes to The Hat Factory.

Utter! Luton will feature a full length set from Luton's own lyrical laureate John Hegley. Supporting him will be a whole host of talent including his son Paul Hegley, Fay Roberts, Danni Antagonist, Brendan Wyer and Matthew M Taylor of Monkey Kettle magazine, along with hosts Richard Tyrone Jones and Lee Nelson.

Tickets are £6 if booked in advance and £8 on the door.

Book your ticket online at www.thehatfactory.org, or by calling the box office on 01582 878100.

Breakfast club

– with Heart FM's Stuart and Natalie

HAVE you been watching the Steps reunion show?

We're absolutely hooked. In particular Stuart was very excited to remind the gang that they'd surprised him on his last ever Blue Peter show and they taught him the routine to 5, 6, 7, 8... you should try to find that on YouTube!

They told us they were all a bit unsure about getting back together.

Lee said: "I think for all of us there's been a question of do we want to do this. We've been asked for some time to get together but it's only now we feel it's a good time."

"All of us had our doubts but now we're ready to move forward."

Next up we wanted to know whether there'd be anymore reality TV appearances!

H has been on Big Brother, Claire has been on Master Chef.

We asked whether they'd be up for replacing the panel on Britain's Got Talent.

The band went one better with Faye suggesting: "What about Come Dine with Me" which Steps' Claire thought was a brilliant idea.

Stu offered his services as a butler and the girls asked if he'd be a naked one!

We wanted to know whether there was one member of the band, who this time around was doing a 'Gary Barlow' and just oozing sex appeal.

The girls unanimously said it was Lee.

Claire said: "Lee has not aged a single day in ten years" with Lisa adding: "He's aged really well."

Natalie asked whether Lee was doing a Simon Cowell with vitamin injections.

"No it's all natural and healthy," said Lee who does run his own fitness club, so no excuse really.

The Steps reunion show is on every Wednesday at 9pm on Sky One. It's well worth a look.

Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast Monday to Friday 6am-10am on Heart 96.6FM

MUSIC

IAN MCNABB

Hat Factory, Luton
Thursday, 8pm

THE legendary Liverpool singer/songwriter Ian McNabb is performing at The Hat Factory this week.

Ian is well known for both his critically acclaimed solo work and as lead singer and songwriter of The Icicle Works during the 1980s.

With a career spanning three decades, he emerged onto the Liverpool music scene in the early 1980s as part of the 'neo-psychedelia' wave with The Icicle Works.

In the past, Ian has played with artists as diverse as Ringo Starr, Crazy Horse and folk legends Pentangle. He gained distinguished recognition after he received a Mercury Prize nomination in 1994 for his album 'Head Like a Rock'.

In addition to performing songs from his solo career and The Icicle Works days, Ian will be performing tracks from his latest release 'Great Things,' an album which is an enjoyable and eclectic treat. This performance promises to take the audience on a detailed tour of his inner thoughts and musings in an easy and effortless way.

As one of the UK's finest singer songwriters, Ian's songs are written with warmth, humour, cynicism and grandeur, and this tour has sold out to audiences across the country.

Tickets cost £10, or £8 for concessions, and a pre-concert meal can be bought for £6. You can book your tickets now online at www.thehatfactory.org or call the box office on 01582 878100 or 547474.

WHAT'S ON

KEECH HOSPICE CARE - CRAFTS FOR CHRISTMAS FAIR

Barnfield College, New Bedford Road, Luton
Saturday and Sunday, 10am-4pm

KEECH Hospice Care's Crafts for Christmas Fair is the place to be for anyone looking for the perfect festive gift for friends and family.

There will be more than 30 stalls - including embroidery and fine linens, enamels and jewellery, cards and candles and works of art, plus a host of other seasonal gifts - at the event, where Keech will sell its extensive selection of Christmas wrapping paper, cards and the 2012 charity diaries and calendar.

As well as picking up something a little more inspiring than the usual socks, books and handkerchiefs, you'll also do your bit for the economy as the fair will feature beautiful crafts and unusual gifts from some of the area's leading craftspeople.

Economists have worked out that if £1 is spent locally it's worth nearly double that to the economy, so coming along to the craft fair will benefit the region up to three times:

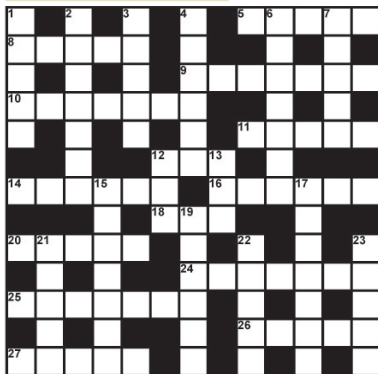

- You get great presents for your family and friends

- Keech gets vital funds which allows it to provide hospice care for local children and adults with life-limiting illnesses

Admission to Crafts for Christmas costs £2 for adults, £1.50 for concessions and accompanied children (under 14) go free.

All proceeds will benefit Keech Hospice Care, which provides hospice care for children and adults with life-limiting illnesses. So say goodbye to boring Christmas gifts and last-minute shopping trips and get crafty this festive season. To find out more about the Crafts for Christmas event, call 01582 707940 or go to www.keech.org.uk/craftsforchristmas

Your CV

When you send your CV off to a potential employer, remember that you won't be the only one. Hundreds of other people could be applying for the job as well.

So what are you going to do to make you stand out from the crowd? Why should an employer take a chance on you instead of someone else?

Your CV is your first real chance to sell yourself to a potential employer. Most employers will scan through a CV in about 30 seconds so you need to grab their attention from the start - and make them want to invite you for an interview.

There are five main areas to consider when writing your CV:

- Make sure your CV looks the part. Your CV should look clean and tidy - don't scrawl it out on a piece of A4 paper. If you haven't got access to a PC or printer, ask a friend or use your local library. Use a good quality paper and steer clear of fancy borders and front covers.

- Watch out for silly spelling and grammar mistakes. They make you look lazy and show employers that you don't really care. It's not difficult to do a spell check on your PC and if you're really stuck then don't just guess, reach for a dictionary. Get a friend to read through your CV for you - a second opinion is always useful.

- Make sure your CV is well organised. When you list your previous jobs, make sure the dates are correct and try not to leave any gaps. If you took time out to go travelling then say so - employers won't mark you down just because you've tried something new.

- Don't waffle. Remember that employers don't have time to read every word of your CV. Long paragraphs and sentences put people off, so try bullet-points to break up text. Make sure your CV is no longer than two pages long - employers don't want your life history, they just want to see that you've got what it takes to do the job.

- Don't list any failures. Employers have enough trouble finding someone who is right for the job - they don't need help finding reasons not to employ you. If you have to include a mistake from your past, make sure you show the employer that you learnt something from the experience.

Keep it simplePersonal details

Start off with your full name, address, date of birth, home and mobile phone numbers, email address and nationality. If you are offered an interview, the employer will want to get hold of you so give him as many options as possible.

Summary/professional profile

This is the No1 area for selling yourself. Set out your main skills and personal qualities but keep it interesting and tight - one paragraph should do to cover everything.

Education and qualifications

List your qualifications and education history, with the most recent first. You don't need to list the grades for each exam you have passed unless they were exceptional results - simply listing the number and type of exams you've passed is fine. Also, list any relevant professional organisations you belong to and training courses you have been on.

Work experience

Start with your most recent position and work backwards, giving addresses along with start and finish dates. Set out your main responsibilities, duties and most importantly achievements, along with any skills you picked up or improvements you made while you were there. This is a really important section in your CV so make it count - but don't waffle.

If you have not had a full-time job before, detail any part-time jobs you may have held or any placement you have been on.

Other skills

Set out any computer skills you may have and the software you are most familiar with. Can you type, do shorthand or speak a foreign language fluently? If you have a driving licence, let the employer know. If it's clean, tell them.

Interests & hobbies

Briefly list what you get up to in your spare time. Put down any positions you hold in clubs or associations, along with any responsibilities and achievements.

References

Make sure you have at least two people (including one from your previous or current job) who will tell an employer what a thoroughly nice person you are and what a potential asset to the company you would be.

If you want to list them now make sure you include their name, job title, postal & e-mail address and contact phone numbers. Alternatively, just put "Available on request" so the employer knows to follow up references at a later date.

Add a covering letter

The main aim of a covering letter is to encourage an employer to give you a chance. You want them to read your CV, so sell it to them. You should always enclose a covering letter when applying for a job - most employers won't consider you unless you do.

A covering letter should let the employer know why you are interested in the job and why you think you can do it.

The hints and tips below should point you in the right direction:

- Keep it simple. A covering letter should be short and to the point - no more than six paragraphs.
- Mention the job. If you are replying to an advert, mention what the job is and where you saw it. The company may be advertising for other positions and it may not be clear which job you are applying for.
- Sell yourself. Explain why you are the perfect candidate for the job. Show off your strengths and experience. Refer to your CV - if it goes missing then at least an employer will know that you've sent it.
- Check it for mistakes. A silly spelling mistake in a covering letter is likely to cost you your chance of getting an interview. Also, make sure it is addressed to the right person in the right department.

A covering letter can be just as important as a CV in getting you an interview. It's your first point of contact with your potential employer - so make it count.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Order made by Central Bedfordshire Council on the 11th April 2011 the effect of which will be to prohibit any person proceeding on foot as follows;

- Footpath No 17, Dunstable which extends from Ordnance Survey Grid Reference (OS GR) TL 0262 2185 east to OS GR TL 0349 2185

- Bridleway No 20, Dunstable which extends from OS GR TL 0349 2185 generally east north east to OS GR TL 0362 2193.

has been continued in force with the approval of the Secretary of State for Transport until 17th April 2012.

These temporary closures are required to enable construction works to take place for the Luton Dunstable Busway and the new emergency maintenance access and cycle track. The closures are expected to continue from 17 October 2011 until 17 April 2012.

The alternative routes for footpath and bridleway users while the closures are in operation will be:

From OS GR TL 0262 2185 proceed south east along Footpath No 19, Dunstable for approx 500m to its junction with Half Moon Lane at OS GR TL 0297 2150. Cross the land and proceed through the kissing gate. Continue generally east along Bridleway No 18, Dunstable across the field for approx 400m to OS GR TL 0341 2156, continue generally north east along Footpath No 24, Dunstable for approx 305m to OS GR TL 0367 2173. Continue along Footpath No 45, Caddington for approx 985m to OS GR TL 0460 2195 and then proceed north west along an unaffected part of Footpath No 7, Caddington for approx 285m to OS GR TL 0440 2214 and site and vice versa.

The Order will continue in force until 17th April 2012 or until the works have been completed, whichever is the earlier. If the works are not completed within six months the Order may be extended for a longer period with the consent of the Secretary of State for Transport.

Luton Borough Council
THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (WIGMORE LANE) (TEMPORARY FOOTPATH CLOSURE) ORDER 2011

NOTICE is hereby given that on 10th October 2011 Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, made the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (as amended).

The Order will come into operation 24th October 2011 and cease operation after a period of 6 months or when the proposed works have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

The effect of the Order will allow the Council to close to pedestrians the footpath and length of footpath in the schedule below. The Order is intended to create a window for the works to be done and it is anticipated that the works will be completed over a period within the dates and times described in the Schedule below. Specific dates will be signed locally. The Order will therefore be in operation when signs are displayed.

The purpose of the Order is to carry out foul water connection works within the highway on Wigmore Lane.

Access will be maintained as best as possible to properties where this may be done safely whilst such works are being carried out and diversions for pedestrians will be marked by signs.

Dunstable dumped out of FA Cup

FA CUP THIRD QUALIFYING ROUND

REDBRIDGE 3
DUNSTABLE TOWN 0

DUNSTABLE TOWN'S best FA Cup run since 1985 came to an abrupt end yesterday after losing to Ryman League side Redbridge.

It was a nervy game for both sides early on, which was expected at this stage of the competition, and the dusty pitch did not help matters.

The first half was a non-event and the only chances Dunstable created were when Joe Wellens missed a one-on-one with the goalkeeper and Peter Holmes cracked a shot against the upright.

The beginning of the second was a replica of the first as both teams continued to misplace a number of passes.

The match then turned a bit nasty as a couple of yellow cards were then distributed with one for Town's Joe Bruce.

In the 71st minute, though, Redbridge took the lead. A long throw-in was not cleared and the ball was poked in by the home side.

Dunstable were given an immediate opportunity to get back in to the game when Lee Roache was felled in the box, but Peter Holmes missed from the spot.

A minute later, it got worse for the visitors when Danny Hutchins was given a straight red card for a dangerous tackle.

Redbridge then put the game out of reach when they scored in the 85th minute and again three minutes later, to knock Town out of the FA Cup and hand them their first defeat in 22 games.

LUTON TOWN 5

Five-star Hatters thump Heed with help from Howells

BY MARC BAZELEY

marc.bazeley@lutononsunday.com

JAKE Howells returned from international duty with a bang, grabbing two goals as Luton Town ran out 5-1 winners in the face of a spirited challenge from fellow Blue Square Bet Premier promotion contenders Gateshead.

The Heed have been something of a surprise package this season and sat third in the table before the start of the match. They showed why that has been the case in spells, particularly during the first half, but manager Ian Bogie will rue his side's missed opportunities.

Hatters boss Gary Brabin rang in the changes after Tuesday night's disappointing 2-2 draw at Ebbsfleet United. Keith Keane was given an immediate recall to the centre of midfield after completing his one-match ban, while Howells and Stuart Fleetwood came in for Jamie Hand and Aaron O'Connor.

And it was recently capped Wales Under-21 international Howells, along with second half goals from substitutes O'Connor and Hand, ensuring that the home side were celebrating at the end, leapfrogging their opponents in the process.

The early exchanges saw most of the action confined to the middle third of the pitch, although Gateshead did break out in the seventh minute and arguably should have taken the lead.

Kris Gate curled in a dangerous low cross from the left, but Jon Shaw could not get to it and Josh Gillies horribly miscued his shot under pressure from George Pilkington.

Pilkington was in the thick of the action at the other end as well, although he was unable to direct his close-range header goalwards from a corner.

However, Luton's task was made harder when the in-form Morgan-Smith was forced off after just 11 minutes due to an injury. It was the visitors that were looking the more threatening as the first half wore on and they were only denied by the frame of the goal in the 25th minute when Micky Cummins saw his header come back off the bar. Then goalkeeper Mark Tyler pulled off a fine reaction save to thwart Gillies from his volley on the rebound.

Gateshead were then grateful for two fine saves from Paul Farman. First he parried away Curtis Osano's curling drive from 25 yards, then did the same when Keane unleashed a fearsome strike from a similar distance. The ball was not cleared by the visitors, but Fleetwood put his attempt from eight yards over.

Farman went from hero to villain in the 33rd minute when he gifted the Hatters an indirect free kick inside the box after picking up a back pass from one of his own defenders. Gateshead packed men in the way, but Howells drilled it low to put the hosts in front.

Back came the Tynesiders and Tyler was called into action to save Yemi Odubade's shot from outside the box two minutes later.

Then in the 42nd minute he pulled off another great block to keep out the prolific Jon Shaw after he had lashed Craig Baxter's cross goalwards from 12 yards.

Luton's response was a swift and effective counter-attack. Substitute O'Connor picked out Howells who drilled home from an angle for his and his side's second of the game two minutes before the interval.

It remained that way at the break, but was somewhat harsh on the Heed.

It was a subdued opening to the second period, although there was a moment of concern in the 55th minute when Osano and Gillies clashed heads in the Luton area while contesting a header.

The full back was able to continue, but Gillies was not and was replaced by Nathan Fisher.

Five minutes later James Dance shot over from the edge of the Gateshead box after barrelling his way through the defence. Shaw also had a chance to pull one back on 65 minutes, but he headed Fisher's cross straight at Tyler.

The contest was effectively settled in favour of Luton with 20 minutes to go.

Substitute Jon Paul Kissock swung in a corner to the near post and O'Connor was there with a backwards header just two yards out.

How much he actually knew about it is up for debate, but that mattered little to him.

Odubade threatened when he again broke through the defence in the 73rd minute, only to shoot across the face of goal. But three minutes later Shaw grabbed his 14th of the season when he slipped his marker and headed home Martin Britain's free kick into the area.

Any hopes of a comeback were swiftly snuffed out by the Hatters. Kissock undid the defence with a pass to Fleetwood, whose wonderful one-touch pass into the path of Hand allowed him to slot past Farman and restore the three goal advantage with 12 minutes remaining.

Hand added his second with a volley in added time to give the scoreline a harshly lopsided look, but the result nonetheless sets Luton up nicely for the visit of table toppers Wrexham on Tuesday.

Luton Town line-up (4-3-3) - Tyler; Osano, Kovacs, G. Pilkington (captain), Blackett; Howells, Keane, Dance; Morgan-Smith (O'Connor 11, (Hand 76)). Fleetwood, Willmott (Kissock 61) Subs Not Used - K. Pilkington, Watkins Referee - Mr Rob Whitton (Essex) Attendance - 6,285

BIGGLESWADE TOWN 2
BARTON ROVERS 2

A MAN-OF-THE-MATCH performance by Biggleswade's goalkeeper prevented a spirited Barton side from leaving taking home all three points in this county derby.

Rovers took the lead courtesy of a Daniel Flack own goal but the home side equalised through Ashley Fuller's second half strike.

The first half was all Barton, with the away side creating numerous chances but failing to find the net. However, the pressure told in the 25th minute when Flack put the ball in his own net to give Rovers the lead.

Biggleswade then started the second half brightly and were gaining a foothold in the match but Barton still created openings.

Russell Bull had a shot smothered by The Waders' shot-stopper and this seemed to spark the home side into life, their equaliser coming with 25 minutes remaining.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE PREMIER

AFC DUNSTABLE 6
HATFIELD TOWN 2

BJ CHRISTIE scored a hat-trick as ten-man AFC held on to put six past Hatfield Town.

The other goals came from Daniel Ryan, Hayden Wills and Ryan Quinn.

Dunstable started well and raced into a 3-0 lead on 44 minutes before Ryan saw red, with Hatfield scoring the resulting penalty.

Hatfield then pressured after the interval but they could only manage a late consolation goal after AFC had put the game to bed with three early second half strikes.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION ONE

CRAWLEY GREEN 3
SUN POSTAL SPORTS 2

CRAWLEY overcame a two goal deficit to make it two wins on the trot against their bottom of the table opponents.

Two goals within 16 minutes put the away side in front but strikes from James Dickson and Nick Nolan levelled the score before half time.

Sun Postal then had two men sent off either side of a Jamie Warne winner.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION TWO ROUND-UP

TOTTENHOE were unable to convert their dominance into goals as they suffered a 2-0 defeat away to Mursey United.

Chris Golding, Liam McManam and Stefan Tracey all missed glorious chances in the first half, when they should have easily scored.

Mursey took the lead on the stroke of half time courtesy of a Tottenham own goal. The home side scored again on 60 minutes to seal the match.

Elsewhere, CADDINGTON lost 3-2 at home to MK Wanderers in a match that included three missed penalties.

The home side missed one themselves and MK failed to score both of theirs - but did follow up one to take the lead.

Henry Steele equalised for Caddington but they went behind again, only for Jamie Allen to bring the scores level once more. Wanderers snatched victory late on.

Reynolds' rise continues with NACYP progression

BOXING

LUTON boxer Jordan Reynolds has advanced to the regional round of the National Association of Clubs for Young People (NACYP) 2011 Championships after a unanimous decision over Kevin McDonagh.

The 16-year-old who has moved up a division to 63-66kgs easily outpointed his opponent with the final two rounds of the 3x2 minute contest seeing the young pugilist rock McDonagh back on the ropes on a number of occasions with an impressive flurry of combinations.

Reynolds reached the final of the Junior ABA Championships last season - his first as an amateur - and was representing Stevenage ABC but also trains at Graham Earl's House of Champions gym in Luton.

Former world champion Earl said: "It was his first time in the championships and he won it clearly. Jordan is definitely one to watch. He's someone who loves what he's doing and he's got a good chance of going further but he has to make sure he doesn't get over excited."

■ LUTON professional Michael Devine knocked out Lithuanian Vladimir Balaklijec in the second round of their lightweight contest at York Hall, Bethnal Green, London last Saturday.

The victory, which saw him punch his rival to the canvas three times in 30 seconds, makes it three on the spin since his return to the ring after a year out.

Brabin: We want Kovacs to stay

WITH a week left on Janos Kovacs' loan deal, Luton Town boss Gary Brabin has admitted he'd like to tie the Hungarian centre back down to an extension.

The defender will be available for Friday's televised trip to Grimsby Town and after that he is due to return to his parent club Hereford United.

Kovacs, who left Kenilworth Road to join the Bulls, has played in all seven matches since he re-signed for the club on a one-month deal and Brabin is keen to keep him for longer.

"It is something we'd be interested in doing," said the manager. "We spoke to Janos as well but at the moment we don't want to be going into it too much. He's still got games coming up and during his last week we'll have to touch base with Hereford and see where they are, because they had a change of personnel behind the scenes at their club."

Brabin hailed the Hungarians' impressive displays after he was brought in to help out with the Hatters' injury crisis. In the weeks he has been back captain George Pilkington and Shane Blackett have both returned from long stays on the treatment table but still, Brabin is keen to keep him on.

He said: "Janos has come in and done really well. He looks as if he's enjoying his football and he'll be a good asset for us if we could extend that."

"It's like anything. He's back playing regular football, playing good football and it increases the stakes. He's Hereford's player and we've got him for a month but, at the end of the day, he's still owned by Hereford. That's going to be Hereford's decision."

"He's certainly getting better and better with each game. He comes in every day with a smile on his face and does the things that we are about."

"I think he really enjoys it and that's certainly a big plus for us."

Luton slip up against Westcliff

RUGBY UNION

NATIONAL THREE LONDON & SE
LUTON 13
WESTCLIFF 28

ANOTHER disappointing performance saw Luton lose 13-28 at home to Westcliff.

Jake Harris, Hayden Annand and Jake Hobbs were among the tries for Luton, with Matt Meaken, Ben McKeith, Dave Cosgrove and Jon Sigwart on the scoresheet for the away team.

An early penalty from Harris led to heavy Luton pressure but Westcliff hit back to go in 13-3 up at half time.

Annand (pictured) then reduced the deficit with a 54th minute try but Harris missed the conversion.

This allowed Westcliff to extend their lead with further points before a late Hobbs try finished the scoring.

INTERMEDIATE CUP ROUND TWO

STOCKWOOD PARK 20
BANBURY 34

A DISASTROUS ten-minute spell at the beginning of the second half cost Stockwood dear, as they lost to Banbury.

The home side did score the first points of the day when Shaan Haque touched down in the 20th minute after some good break play with Jason Carr converting. Carr then added a penalty a few minutes later to increase their total.

Banbury dominated the next 40 minutes as they scored five tries. Ben Griffin and James Hankey scored two tries late on to decrease Banbury's lead.

Elsewhere, DUNSTABLIANS lost 18-3 to Newbold on Avon in their cup tie.

Brabin plans to keep calm and carry on after big win

BY MARC BAZELEY

marc.bazeley@lutononsunday.com

AN emphatic 5-1 victory at home to Gateshead may well have Luton Town right in amongst the Blue Square Bet Premier promotion contenders, but manager Gary Brabin is remaining grounded.

Two goals each for Jake Howells and substitute Jamie Hand, as well as Aaron O'Connor's first for the club, sent the Hatters up to third on goal difference over the Tynesiders and five points behind league leaders Wrexham.

The Welsh side visit Kenilworth Road on Tuesday evening and Luton will be full of confidence after this victory. Yet Brabin knows better than to start getting carried away at present.

"I try not to get too excited when we win games and try not to get too despondent when we lose them," he said.

"It's a fantastic scoreline, a fantastic performance and I believe we are going in the right direction, but we can't get too carried away at the moment.

"It's a long season – we're going to have some disappointing results and performances between now and the end of the season.

"But as long as we achieve our goal of promotion, which I'm confident of, and we get that consistency then the performances will come.

"Gateshead are a good side, we knew they'd be difficult and they started quite brightly.

"It was difficult for us, having to change so early in the game, but I thought the lads responded brilliantly and I thought we thoroughly deserved the three points."

Some of the shine was taken off the win by an injury to Luton's top scorer Amari Morgan-Smith, who limped off after 11 minutes and spent the rest of the match sitting in the director's box rubbing his right calf.

Brabin remains hopeful that he will not be out for too long, although he is now a doubt for Tuesday night's game.

The Hatters boss has had to deal with his fair share of injury problems at the club this season, saying: "It's disappointing, but we're used to it at the moment.

"We had to bring Amari off on Tuesday because he was injured, we were hoping he would be alright today, but after ten minutes we had to bring him off.

"I also left O'Connor off because we had to substitute him on Tuesday because he was injured. We brought him on, he was fantastic for an hour, and then we've had to bring him off to look after him.

"I'm just hoping Amari is alright now after that. He was struggling on Tuesday and we brought him off because we thought we had caught it in time.

"He's taken it quite easy the last couple of days and we thought he would be alright today, but obviously that wasn't the case."

■ Read a match report on pages 66-67

No bids for Amari

NO bids have been tabled for Luton's top goalscorer Amari Morgan-Smith though manager Gary Brabin is not surprised the youngster is generating interest.

A host of Championship and League One clubs including Nottingham Forest, Leeds, Sheffield United and Sheffield Wednesday are reportedly monitoring the progress of the Hatter who has netted nine times already this term.

But Town chief Brabin was quick to quash any rumours, saying: "I've not heard anything about that but at the moment he is in good form and that is something we want to continue with Amari. Whenever anyone is doing well, people are always putting names about. There certainly hasn't been any bids or any strong enquiries and, at the moment, he is very much our player.

"He is a good player and we are not surprised there's been some interest."

The England C international, who signed from Ilkeston last season, has been in impressive form under the Luton manager's tutelage. Despite an injury in yesterday's 5-1 win over Gateshead, Brabin believes he has hit the heights of his first few months at the club.

He said: "We've had long chats with Amari and he can't lower his standards. It is not just about goals but his overall performance, which he has taken on board.

"I'm not surprised if there are clubs interested in him and it has gone no further than reading stuff on websites.

"There certainly hasn't been any bids or phone calls."
